International Scientific Conference

THE FINANCIAL AND REAL ECONOMY: TOWARD SUSTAINABLE GROWTH

17 October 2014

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

Veselin Pješčić, Vice-Governor, National Bank of Serbia

Dear colleagues and friends,

We are pleased to announce an international conference that will be held in the City of Niš, Republic of Serbia, on 17 October, 2014. The aim of the Conference is to create a stimulating environment that allows fruitful debates on various aspects of the relationship between financial and real economy, through enabling open discussion.

Both review and research papers are eligible. The papers should relate to areas, which include, but are not limited to: Financialization – roots, consequences and remedies, Financial growth vs. stability, Toward better regulation of financial institutions, Fiscal constraints and macro-economic perspectives, Income distribution, wage and employment, Contemporary challenges of corporate governance, Reconsidering leading economic paradigmes and transition strategies, Policy and regulatory responses of post-transition economies, National competitiveness, Economy and politics – political drivers of reform etc. This time the conference will be hosting:

PhD seminar

PhD seminar is a special opportunity for PhD students and candidates to meet and make discussions with other doctoral students and internationally renowned researchers. It is devoted to sharing ideas and getting feedback on their work-in-progress of the thesis. All interested in taking part in this event should send their presentations, which will be followed by in-depth discussion.
